A New Poem.

BY OWEN MEREDITH.

The new volume of poems by Owen Meredith, just published, is highly praised by the English critics.
It opens with tales from Herodotus. Of these the most beautiful is "Gyges and Candaules." The old legend is amplified and adorned, and receives a coloring of modern feeling, especially in the stanzas where the indignation of the insulted Queen is described. We copy the stanzes that relate how Gyges waited, against his will, concealed in the royal bed-chamber, for the Queen's approach :

Meanwhile, the music out of distant halls
Hummed like the inland sound of hid sea-shore;
And ghostly laughters lapsed at intervals
Along the faint-lik, cold-walled corridors;
And portals oped and shut, and then footfalls
That wandered near, and, over other floors
To other silence, wandered off again,
Kept up continual throbbing in his brain.

At length, deep-down the opposing gallery,
From out the long-drawn darkness flashed a light;
And, peering from his purple privacy,
He spited, with re1 gold bound and robed in white,
Sole as the first star in a sleepy sky,
That, while men watch it, grows more large and bright.
The slow queen sweeping down the lucid floor,
And in her hand a sliver lamp she bore.

Anon, she entered, and her lamp down laid By the smooth-metalled mirror, and swhile Stood, slanting low the glory of her head, And dipped her full face in its own warm smile; Then looked she sidelong through one loosen braid
Of her rich hair, as though she would beguile
ome love-sick spirit on the air to linger, wining a gold carl round her glowing inger.

But soon she all that twisted gold outshook.
Till over either shining shoulder streamed
The hidden splendor, and began to unhook
From those white slopes the buckled gems tha
beamed

beamed
Deep in the mirror's kindling dark, which took
Her mellow image to itself and gleamed
With soft surprises, and grew bright and warm
With the delicious phantom of her form.

Her Gyges watched, as one that helpless hears
The cataract call him downward. His heart made
Such passionate pealing in his fluttered ears,
That by his fear he feared to be betrayed.
And, but that ever greater with his fears
His raptures grew, he had not so long stayed;
But, having stayed so long, he still must stay—
And, having looked, he may not look away.

The Queen discovers him, by his "groaning out ght," in the heat of his bewildered heart, and flies, rith wrath and shame, to seek the shelter of the roy al couch. Gyges rushes from the chamber:

All down the hollow gallery, after him
The loud stones shouted at his heels—behind
The unseen Fury, salling fast through dim
And dreadful space, breathes like a burning wind
Upon his hair; swift fire in every limb
Seethed up and down; night's blackness broke and and with restless eddying of the glare t strong vision, flooding the hot air.

The next morning Gyges is compelled to face the insulted Queen, to whom he relates how the King had required this shameful thing of him; and, as in the old legend, she requires him to slay Candaule ad marry her, or submit himself to death with her. ers to kill the King. He exclaims: But might the half of this dear debt be paid By hecatombs of lives and seas of gore, and had the King's thousand lives to lose. To reach thee through them all I still must choose RICE.—The arrivals of this grain have been a shipment of 77 tierces of Carolina clean from Georgetown, S. C. There is a firmer feeling in the narket caused by the light stock, and some speculative inquiry at the North based on the limited supplies of both Rangeon and Carolina. Factors are, in onsequence, generally unwilling to pound their stocks of rough at the mills unless a price in the vicinity of 11c. ? ib. is offered. We note sales of about 100 tierces of clean Carolina, say 6 tierces at 101/4c. B lb., 44 do. at 10 7-16c. B lb., 50 tierces at 10%c. ₽ fb., and 7 tierces at 10%c. ₽ fb. dred. The demand continues very limited. CORN.—The arrivals from Tennessee by rail is in good supply and are the only qualities now being received. There is a moderate inquiry, and prices have continued during the week without important alteration, and we quote Tennessee descriptions at $1 15@$1 18 % bushel, weight, bags included, by the car load from the depot, according to the quality of the article and size of lot.

OATS .- There have been no receipts of this grain during the week, and the limited transactions have been confined to the retail trade.

ANSWER TO MEDICAL INQUIRIES .-MEDICAL DEPARTMENT, R. B. R. OFFICE, No. 87 MAIDEN LANE, NEW YORK.—Dear Doctor: We are compelled to answer your inquirles relative to the curative properties of SARSAPARILLIAN and its associates as constituents in our BENOVATING. RESOLVENT in Lung affections, and its wonderful power in arresting waste and decay of the Lungs, healing Ulcers, looseving the phlegm, and enabling the patient to expectorate freely the thick sloughing matter deposited in the air passages and cells of the Lungs and Bronchi, and at the same time keeping up the general strength of the patient, repairing the waste with good agond and healthy retained to the following schedule: waste with good, sound and healthy material, imparting nourishment as well as purification of the blood,—through the medium of the press;—that hundreds of others daily writing us for information may know that we have a remedy in the RESOL-VENT that will arrest the progress of Consumption, either of the Lungs, Liver, Kidneys or Bowels. The RESOLVENT is a compensating remedy; it communicates its curative powers through the blood, sweat and urine; it restores functional harmony and enables each secreting organ to secrete its proper constituents. Direct remedies, as Lung Balsams, Lungs, as a regular remedy, are hurtful, as they augment the functions of the Lungs at the expense of suspending or interrupting the functions of the Liver, Kidneys and Skin. If a patient suffering with a severe cough, with a sense of suffocation or weight in the chest, irritation or soreness in the throat, pain in the shoulders, difficulty of raising or expectors ing phlegm, dryness of the skin, or if there is constipation of the bowels, unnatural appetite, great like the white of an egg, or brick dust, or thread-like skeins, or if there is pain in the small of the back. hips, stomach or bowels, chest, etc., from a dessert to a tablespoonful of RESOLVENT half an hour after each meal, and if the cough is troublesome one teaspoonful at night, will afford immediate case, and rill soon remove all unpleasant symptoms.

As aids to the Resolvent, if pain is present, the spine should be rubbed with the Ready Relief, and one to four of Hadway's pills (coated) to insure perfect digestion and regular evacuations from the bowels. The nourishing properties of RADWAY'S RENOVATING RESOLVENT increase the strength and flesh of the patient. We do not claim that this remedy will make new lungs, new kidneys, or other wasted organs, but it will arrest decay, heal ulcers. and supply the waste that is daily passing off, with new, sound and healthy material. Dr. Radway can be consulted, free of charge, from 12 to 2 P. M., at No.

The public have but a faint idea of the great importance of BADWAY'S RESOLVENT, in the treatnent of chronic disease of the Kidneys and urinary organs. Sarsaparillian and Pareira Brava, two of it ingredients, as prepared by Dr. Radway's processsupplies a want that has ever existed, in repairing the waste of the body with pure and healthy material out of new rich blood, of arresting dissolution and decay, of restoring functional harmony, of securing strength, and dissolving calculous concre. tions, of curing every form of Kidney, Bladder and Uterine diseases; of stopping all kinds of weakening purulent, and irritating discharges; of restoring the vigor of life, to all, whether induced by self-abuse, impure association, bad habit of system, exposure,

As the RENOVATING RESOLVENT SARSAPA. RILLIAN ... ters immediately into the circulation, it crimonious humors from the blood at once. Skin Eruptions, Blotches, Pustules, Tetters, Worms and insects, Black Spots, etc., are removed by a few doses, and the skin changed to a clear and beautiful

This remedy is superior to all preparations of Buchu, Cubebs, Juniper, etc., in Diabetes, Catarrh of the Bladder, Gravel, Brick Dusts, and other morbid state of the Urine. The RENOVATING RESOL-TENT does not augment the functional secretions of one organ by suspending the secretions of others. Ask always for Dr. BADWAY'S RESOLVENT, or SARSAPARILLIAN RESOLVENT. Price $1 per bottle; or six bott es for $5. DR. RADWAY & CO...
